INTRODUCTION OF BI-DIRECTIONAL ELECTRONICAL COMMUNICATION

Since 1-st of January 2022 introduces Financial Administration bi-directional electronical communication. Until now, the communication with Financial Administration was established on the one-way basis, i.e., from taxpayer towards the Financial Administration. The communication after 1-st of January 2022 won't be processed via mailbox on the website of Financial Administration but rather via the interface on the portal slovensko.sk. The owner of the electronical mailbox may be announced by e-mail or text message notification. To those, who won't have activated mailbox in the future, Financial Administration will use the old version of communication, i.e., via post office, where all documents will be delivered in a paper form on the address of the proxy. We really appreciate this initiative and we believe that it will contribute to better entrepreneurial environment in Slovakia.
